Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Due to the nature of the work undertaken at Linkage, all posts within the Trust are exempt from the provisions of Section 4 (2) of the above act. This means that applicants are not entitled to withhold information about any convictions which are 'unspent' under the provisions of the Act. You must therefore disclose details relating to any 'unspent' convictions that you may have. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website. A successful applicant will be required to submit to a Disclosure via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), which will include details of any previous 'unspent' criminal convictions. The DBS Disclosure may also include details of 'unspent' cautions, reprimands or official warnings that have been received so applicants should ensure they disclose information on these areas if appropriate. For information on the terms of disclosure please visit the Disclosure & Barring Service website; www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service

Linkage operates this process in accordance with a written code of practice, a copy of which is available upon request.

Please note that an offer of employment may be withdrawn, or employment subsequently terminated, should an applicant be found to have given false information. The disclosure of previous convictions or pending criminal proceedings against you will not necessarily disadvantage your application.

Please provide details of any convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings which are 'unspent':
